Great Reduction

I have reduced the batter part of my first shipment of Welch, Margetson & Co.'s London-made Neckwear, which formerly sold for 75c, $1, and $1.25, to 50c each. This great reduction in FINE GOODS, combined with the large and varied assortment in styles and patterns of my present stock of 50 CENT Scarfs, make it the largest, handsomest, and cheapest line of Neckwear ever offered in Washington. I have also added all the late styles of the best domestic manufacture in Silk, Satin, Linon, and Plaue.

The Lockout.

EDITOR NATIONAL REPUBLICAN: There is one phase of the "lockout" problem which I think has not been duly emphasized in the public press. If the "bessee" succeed in coeremic the workman to labor ton hours per day, they (the bosses) will increase fitheir own profits in present the workman to have ton the eight hour basis, thus robbing the investor, and wronging the workmen. Has the public no opinion to express on this attempted injustice? Are capitalist to be dieced with impunity? Would it not be well for all who have money to invest in building to preserve the list of bosses published in this morning's Post as members of the association after miling this crime? Is there not room in this city for honest, independent master builders to engage in and develop a legitimate business.

The Senator Didn't Get In. Senator Riddleberger chapperoned fifteen persons to the circus on Monday evening, and rrived after the ticket office had been closed, strived after the ticket of once has been closed, thereupon he purchased tickets from a speculator on the street, and they proved begue, Then the sounter saked a police officer to strest the swindler, but the officer got things mixed and took the senator in custody. Making known his identity he was released at the station and vasted any province his the tree. station, and yeakerday morning laid the mat-ter before the commissioners, and all con-cerned were called up for an explanation, after which the senator shock hands all ground and laughed the matter off.

"Daisy Soar Dest" has become quite a by-word in the last few days. It is a Washington article, and is now in use in the leading hotels, Frank Ward's dairles, &c. It certainly makes things shine. It is for sale in all the grocery stores, and seems to do better work than any-thing ever used for cleaning.

The Bank Cases.

Rambling Talk!

About the middle of last March the idea occurred to us to present every purchaser of a Boys' Suit with a pair of roller skates. We then ordered 2,000 pairs (when bought in such large quantities the cost is but trifling), and on last Friday we were compelled to duplicate the order. Inasmuch as not a single pair of skates left our house unaccompanied by a Boy's or Child's Suit of Clothes it will be seen that in six weeks we them are the following : have sold over 2,000 Suits for Boys and Children. This in itself proves the popularity of our goods, our prices, and our methods of doing business. Doubtless there are a good many parents and guardians who have not yet seen our stock, our styles, or our prices. To those we respectfully extend a standing invitation to visit our house at their convenience, look through our stock, compare our styles and prices with those to be found elsewhere, and then decide whether our claim to keeping the finest goods and selling them at the lowest price is a good one or merely an idle boast. No visitor is ever importuned to buy; our experience has been that when goods are needed our styles and prices sell them without any effort. We keep Children's Suits as low as $1.25, and right pratty little suits they are. We have them in every grade up to the finest made. We keep Boys', Youths', and Men's Clothing in abundance, selected with care and attention. Our styles are the latest and nobblest to be found on the American market. Our prices are the lowest that can possibly be named for such goods and live. We fancy our methods meet with the approval of our people.
